SUBJECT: Migration to Arkansas

Objective

The objective of this project is to determine the timeline when the sons of Willis Ralls, William B. and Nathaniel, presumed son Charles M. Ralls and his daughter Sarah Ralls who married Levi Cook departed Obion County, Tennessee. William B. and Nathaniel Ralls, and Levi Cook appear on the 1840 U.S. census, Obion County, Tennessee. Subsequently William B. and Nathaniel Ralls appear on the 1850 U.S. census, Sevier County, Arkansas, along with Charles. Levi Cook and his family appear on the 1850 U.S. census in Stoddard County, Missouri. To the extent possible, determine when these families left Obion County, if they traveled with others (FAN's) and why they relocated.

Background Information

When Willis Ralls, a chain carrier for William Owen's surveys in 1806, arrived in Hopkins County, Kentucky, this land had been open to settlement in 1795 by an "ACT for the relief of the Settlers on the south side of Green River".<sup>1</sup> On October 19, 1818, Andrew Jackson and former Kentucky Governor Isaac Shelby negotiated with the Chickasaw tribe the purchase of the land bounded by the Mississippi River to the west, Ohio River to the north, Tennessee River to the east or the "land between the rivers". The area located in current day Kentucky is commonly referred to as the Jackson Purchase.<sup>2</sup> Obion, Weakley and Henry counties, Tennessee would be in the Tennessee portion of the purchase.

With new land opened for settlement, Willis Ralls left Livingston County, Kentucky and arrived in Obion County, Tennessee by 20 July 1822 as evidence of Willis Rawls, a subscribing witness to the conveyance of 150 acres (being part of a 1,000-acre grant to Alexander McKee) lying on Grove Creek from John McKee to Wyatt Bettis.<sup>3</sup>

With the Louisiana Purchase in 1803, the current day Arkansas became a territory of the United States. First, as part of the Missouri Territory from 4 June 1812 to 4 July 1819, and then as the Arkansas Territory from 4 July 1819 to 15 June 1836.

Willis was residing in Obion County, Tennessee when Arkansas became a territory in 1819 and a state in 1836. In 1836, Texas wins independence from Mexico. We know David Crockett resided in Obion County, Tennessee prior to departing to Texas to fight at the Alamo. David Crockett discusses meeting William Owen at William's house. In his autobiography "A Narrative of the Life of David Crockett, of the State of Tennessee", he indicates meeting Mr. Owen's and his wife at Mr. Owen's residence where Mud Creek joins the South Fork of the Obion Fork. This meeting occurred when Davey Crockett went to Obion County looking for land to relocate his family in 1821.<sup>4</sup> Surely the exploits of Crockett and the newly opened land for settlement was enticing for the Ralls siblings.

Willis Ralls, along with sons William B. and Nathaniel Ralls are found on the 1840 U.S. census, Obion County, Tennessee.<sup>5</sup> Willis' daughter, Sarah Ralls who married Levi Cook are also residing in Obion County when the 1840 U.S. census was enumerated.<sup>6</sup> Presumed son Charles M. Ralls is not enumerated on the 1840 U.S. census for Obion County. However, Charles can be found on 1835, 1838-1839, 1841-1842 Obion County tax rolls.<sup>7</sup> Willis' presumed children are Susannah and Margaret Ralls are unaccounted. Susannah married Jesse Cook, 13 July 1815, Hopkins County, Kentucky.<sup>8</sup> Her sister Margaret married a Jesse Cook on 26 December 1832, Obion County, Tennessee.<sup>9</sup> It is not known if Susannah had died and Margaret married her sister's widower, Jesse Cook.

Willis died between 1 October and 31 December 1849, Obion County, Tennessee.<sup>10</sup> Prior to Willis' death it appears that his children left Obion County, Tennessee. When did they leave? Table 1 contains Willis Ralls and his children's households on the 1840 U.S. census, Obion County, Tennessee. In Willis' household there is a female 20 to 30 years old, a male between 5 and 10 years old, and a male and female under 5 years old. These ages are consistent with children from the union of Jesse Cook and Margaret Ralls in 1832. If Margaret was 21 at the time of her marriage, she would have been born prior to 1811. A birth in 1811 would place her in the 20- to 30-year-old category. This assumes Jesse Cook has died. Children from the Jesse Cook and Susannah Ralls marriage would presumably be older by 1840.

Findings/Body of the Report

Tax Records — Poll Tax

During the nineteenth century most states had personal taxes that covered land, personal property and a poll tax. Since not all residents owned land, poll taxes were used to raise revenue for the county and state governments. Each state implemented varying age ranges and amounts for the Poll Tax.

In Tennessee, each adult free male in a household between the ages of twenty-one and fifty paid a poll tax of 12 ½ cents.<sup>11</sup> A poll tax not to exceed one dollar was included in the State of Arkansas' first state constitution, adopted in 1836. The poll tax was applied to male adults between the ages of twenty-one and sixty. These tax records can help develop a robust timeline for Willis' children departure, William B. Ralls, Nathaniel Ralls, Charles M. Ralls and Sarah Ralls wife of Levi Cook from Obion County, Tennessee and the arrival to southwest Arkansas and Missouri.<sup>12</sup>

Isom Conner, Jr.

William B. Ralls' father-in-law Isom Conner, Jr. appears to be the first of Willis Ralls' extended family to move from Obion County, Tennessee to Pike County, Arkansas.<sup>13</sup> A search of the Pike County, Arkansas tax rolls for "1832-1843" and "1844-1848, 1850-1853, 1855-1859, 1861, 1866-1867" resulted in entries for Isham Conner, Jr. for 1839, 1840 and 1841. Examining the Sevier County, Arkansas tax rolls for "1837-1838, 1846, 1849-1855", Isom is found on the 1846, 1849, 1850, 1851, 1852, 1853, 1854 and 1855 tax rolls. Of the surviving tax rolls, Isom is

William B. Ralls

Between 1842–1843, William B. Ralls relocated from Obion County, Tennessee to Sevier County, Arkansas. Since the Sevier County Arkansas tax rolls between 1842–1845 are missing, it cannot be confirmed that William B. was in Sevier County until 1846. According to the 1850 U.S. census for Sevier County, Arkansas, William B. Ralls' child Elizabeth is identified as being born in Arkansas. Table 4 illustrates William B. Ralls timeline.

Conclusion

Willis’s children William B., Nathaniel, Charles M. Ralls all departed Obion County, Tennessee between 1842–1843 and Sarah (wife of Levi Cook) left in 1844. Willis stayed behind in Obion County, Tennessee. On the 1840 U.S. census, Willis has a spouse and a younger female (20–30 years old) with children in his household. By November/December 1846, Willis Ralls becomes a ward of Obion County, Tennessee, a pauper, and is taken in by John Huzza. John Huzza married the sister of Levi Cook, Sally Cook. Most likely Willis’ spouse listed on the 1840 census has died and the younger female with children has possibly re-married and moved as well.
